

WE'RE LOOKING FOR YOU!

For over 132 years, Heinrich König GmbH & Co. KG has been synonymous with innovative and reliable products for the maintenance and preservation of surfaces. As a market leader, we develop and manufacture tailored coating systems, fillers, cleaning agents, and care products for professionals in industry, trade, and the DIY sector. We prioritize long-term relationships not only with our customers and partners but also with our employees.

For our location in Niederdorfelden, we are looking to fill the following position as soon as possible:

Production Team Member (m/f/d)

We are looking for someone who has gained substantial practical experience in a similar position.

Your future responsibilities will be:

- Producing products according to specified formulas
- Labelling and packaging products
- Feedback on production orders
- Operating machinery and equipment (including filling, stamping, labelling, and cutting machines)
- Handling internal transports
- Managing storage tasks, including using our inventory management system

Requirements:

- Completed training as a chemical technician, chemical operator, painter, varnisher, printer, or machine and plant operator, or comparable qualification; alternatively, several years of experience in production
- Familiarity with SAP and/or inventory management systems is a plus
- Experience in manufacturing is advantageous
- Strong team player
- Independent and detail-oriented work style
- Proficiency in German (spoken and written)

What we offer:

We offer an exciting position with plenty of creative freedom and opportunities for growth, along with a role and performance-based salary. Additionally, you'll find an open, welcoming organization and a collaborative work environment.
